

TRINITY SCHOOL COMMITTEE PROFILES

David Seymour CB – Chair

David was educated at Trinity before graduating from Oxford. He qualified as a barrister and is a Bencher of Gray's Inn. He subsequently spent much of his career in Whitehall having held posts including Director General of the Attorney General's Office and Legal Advisor to the Home Office. He has advised successive Home Secretaries on all aspects of Home Office business including terrorism, policing, law and order and national security.

David is a member of the Whitgift Foundation Court of Governors.

Viscountess Stansgate OBE

Nita, having graduated from Warwick University, was Ken Livingstone's Press officer for 7 years and worked in 10 Downing Street as the adviser on Trade Unions to Prime Minister Tony Blair. She is currently the Director of the Involvement and Participation Association. Nita is married to Stephen Benn and has two children; their son left Trinity in 2010.

Nita is a member of the Whitgift Foundation Court of Governors.

Andrew Crispin

Andrew was educated at Trinity in the early 1980's, before training as a Quantity Surveyor and embarking on a career in the construction industry. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Building and a Freeman of the Worshipful Company of Constructors. Andrew is the Surveying Director of Walter Lilly & Company Limited, a well renowned and long established Croydon based construction company and has a son at Trinity.

Andrew is Chair of the TSC Estates sub-committee.

John Crozier

John was educated in New Zealand and Kings College, London. He has worked as a solicitor for over 25 years and is currently a partner at Linklaters in London where he works in Global Practice advising corporates, banks and public bodies on complex commercial contracts and joint ventures. John is a current parent with 2 children currently attending Trinity and 1 an alumnus.

John is Chair of the TSC Welfare sub-committee.

Pauline Davies

Pauline was educated at Guildford County Grammar School for Girls and is a graduate of Manchester University, where she also studied for her postgraduate teaching certificate and Masters in science education.

She began her career teaching in 1972 and spent the first 18 years working in the maintained sector. In 1990 she became Headmistress of Croydon High School, at the time one of three largest Trust Schools. In 1998 Pauline took up the headship of Wycombe Abbey, a girl's boarding school in Buckinghamshire, where she spent 10 years. She became an active member of the Girls' School Association, serving as Chairman of the Inspections Committee for three years before becoming President; an association of which she is still an honorary member. Pauline has served on the Schwarz Committee for widening access to higher education and became GSA President.

Pauline is a member of the Whitgift Foundation Court of Governors

David Hudson

David is the Chairman of the Foundation's Governance and External Relations Committee and a governor of Whitgift, Trinity and Old Palace schools. Educated at The King's School Pontefract and Queen's College, Oxford with an MA in Modern Languages, David spent most of his career in various Marketing roles, including four years in Japan, before becoming Director of Communications and Corporate Affairs for Nestle UK. He retired in 2006.

David is a member of the Whitgift Foundation Court of Governors.

Saj Jehta

An Economist by training, Saj is Managing Director of the award-winning creative advisory The Smarty Train. The firm specialises in advising government, leading global employers and universities on Early Talent Recruitment Strategy, Employability and Training. The Smarty Train works frequently at C-Suite, Board, and Ministerial Level and comments on Early Talent Strategy in the press.

Saj started his career as a Strategy Consultant at global consulting firms Accenture and Ernst & Young, specialising in strategy and human performance. He's registered on several global patents for work undertaken on measuring the value of public sector service delivery.

Saj has studied at Trinity School, Harvard, UCL and The London School of Economics, where he received both a Graduate Merit Award and a Faculty Award for academic performance.

Saj is Chair of the Teaching & Learning Committee

Warwick Jones

Warwick was educated at Trinity School and Pembroke College, Cambridge.

After qualifying as a chartered accountant in 1976 he spent most of his career in financial services and banking. He was finance director of a number of commercial organisations until 2006, when he was appointed Finance Director of the Bank of England, a position he held until he retired in 2013.

He is the Treasurer of the charity Family Lives, a national charity supporting parents and the wider family, and a member of the Council of the Trinity Midwhitgiftian Association, the school's former pupils' association.

Warwick is Chair of the TSC Finance sub-committee.

Dr Barry MacEvoy

Barry MacEvoy was educated at Trinity School and Balliol College, Oxford.

After completing a PhD in Particle Physics, he spent 17 years working on the Large Hadron Collider project at the European Organisation for Nuclear Research (CERN) and teaching at Imperial College London. Simultaneously, he built up a now sizeable business acquiring, managing and developing residential and commercial freehold property in the South-East.

He continues to raise funds for Balliol College, where he is also a member of the governing body of the College Society.

Barry is a member of the TSC Teaching & Learning sub-committee

Dudley Mead MBE

Dudley was educated at Trinity School and went on to serve in the Army qualifying as a chartered certified accountant. He started his own accountancy practice in 1976. He has been a local Councillor for Selsdon, Croydon since 1980, Deputy Mayor of Croydon in 1986/87 and Mayor of Croydon in 1989/90. He also held the office of Deputy Leader of the Council and Cabinet member for housing in 2006. He is Chairman of the Trustees for the London Mozart Player and the Garwood Foundation and Governor of Selsdon Primary School. Dudley has been a member of the Court of Governors since 2006 and is currently Chairman of the Whitgift Foundation's Finance and Administration Committee.

Dudley is a member of the Whitgift Foundation Court of Governors.

Terence Perrin

Terence began his career as an HR Manager in the charity/voluntary sector before leading university recruitment for the National Audit Office. He has led recruitment functions at Watson Wyatt, investment bank Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein and KPMG. In 2004 he joined JP Morgan running campus & experienced hire resourcing / development for the Private Bank & Investment Management functions in EMEA (Europe, Middle East & Africa). Terence is now focussed on resourcing, development and mobility for early careers and experienced hires at French investment bank BNP Paribas. He is also involved with global talent management projects for the bank.

Terence is Chair of the TSC External Relations sub-committee.

Paul Petty

Paul was educated at Trinity, Avery Hill College and London University before embarking upon a career in education. He specialised in school improvement, working in a number of inner London boroughs. During that time he was Headmaster of a Church of England Secondary School in Blackheath and a consultant leader for the secondary sector. Paul now runs a global consultancy specialising in business and technology for the international Insurance and Reinsurance markets. His 2 elder sons are Trinity alumni and his youngest son is still a pupil at Trinity.

Trinity School Welfare Sub-Committee

John Crozier

John was educated in New Zealand and Kings College, London. He has worked as a solicitor for over 25 years and is currently a partner at Linklaters in London where he works in Global Practice advising corporates, banks and public bodies on complex commercial contracts and joint ventures. John is a current parent with 2 children at Trinity and 1 an alumnus.

John is Chair of the TSC Welfare sub-committee.

Christopher Tolman

Christopher was educated at Trinity School and Christ Church, Oxford.

After graduating with First Class Honours in Philosophy, Politics and Economics (PPE) in 1998, he spent 3 years teaching at St Albans School before moving to Harrow School in 2001. At Harrow he spent 9 years as Head of Economics and 10 years as Master in Charge of Oxbridge Applications. Since 2012 he has been House Master of The Grove, one of Harrow's 12 boarding houses.

Having been a member of Trinity Boys Choir, Christopher remains a keen singer and musician. He is also a governor at Lockers Park School in Hertfordshire.

Phil Willis

Phil was educated at Trinity and his son is a Trinity alumnus. He is a superintendent in the Metropolitan Police.

Trinity School Finance Sub-Committee

Warwick Jones

Warwick was educated at Trinity School and Pembroke College, Cambridge.

After qualifying as a chartered accountant in 1976 he spent most of his career in financial services and banking. He was finance director of a number of commercial organisations until 2006, when he was appointed Finance Director of the Bank of England, a position he held until he retired in 2013.

He is the Treasurer of the charity Family Lives, a national charity supporting parents and the wider family, and a member of the Council of the Trinity Midwhitgiftian Association, the school's former pupils' association.

Warwick is Chair of the TSC Finance Sub-Committee

Neil Raishbrook

Neil was educated at Trinity School, leaving in 1977 (39 years before his son who left in 2016) and then Hull University where he studied economics. After qualifying as a chartered accountant, he spent his career working in the Group Finance functions of FTSE 250 listed groups. He lives in Oxted with his wife, two boys, two cats and dog.

Roy Wood

Roy was educated at Trinity School. After graduating from Exeter University, Roy joined Advanced 365, a UK IT managed service and software business, and is now Managing Director. Roy is a member of the Old Mid-Whitgiftians and plays hockey for them regularly, having also been club captain.

Andrew Thomas

Andrew was educated at Trinity School, Cardiff University and Chester College of Law.

After completing his training contract with Linklaters, he worked in Hong Kong and then London for most of his legal career and is currently head of projects and project finance at HFW (a London-based, international law firm).

He is a visiting lecturer at SOAS, a fellow of the American College of Investment Counsel, a board member of the Canada Club and a Freeman of the City of London.

Trinity School Teaching & Learning Sub-Committee

Tim Broyd

Professor Tim Broyd is an old boy and ex-parent with previous experience as a governor. He is currently Group Director for Technology & Innovation at Halcrow, an engineering design consultancy, and a visiting Professor at the universities of Reading and Dundee.

Tim Cattell

Tim was educated at Collyer's School and Downing College, Cambridge.

After graduating he served as a teacher, initially at Dulwich College, then at St. Dunstan's College, Catford as Head of Department and finally for 25 years as, successively, Head of Department, Head of Sixth Form and Senior Master at Trinity School.

After retirement in 2002 he has served as Chair of Governors at St. John's C.E. Primary School in Shirley and as Chair or Panel Member for School Admissions and Exclusion Appeals in Croydon and Sutton.

Saj Jehta

An Economist by training, Saj is Managing Director of the award-winning creative advisory The Smarty Train. The firm specialises in advising government, leading global employers and universities on Early Talent Recruitment Strategy, Employability and Training. The Smarty Train works frequently at C-Suite, Board, and Ministerial Level and comments on Early Talent Strategy in the press.

Saj started his career as a Strategy Consultant at global consulting firms Accenture and Ernst & Young, specialising in strategy and human performance. He's registered on several global patents for work undertaken on measuring the value of public sector service delivery.

Saj has studied at Trinity School, Harvard, UCL and The London School of Economics, where he received both a Graduate Merit Award and a Faculty Award for academic performance.

Saj is Chair of the TSC Teaching and Learning Sub-Committee

Dr Barry MacEvoy

Barry MacEvoy was educated at Trinity School and Balliol College, Oxford.

After completing a PhD in Particle Physics, he spent 17 years working on the Large Hadron Collider project at the European Organisation for Nuclear Research (CERN) and teaching at Imperial College London. Simultaneously, he built up a now sizeable business acquiring, managing and developing residential and commercial freehold property in the South-East.

He continues to raise funds for Balliol College, where he is also a member of the governing body of the College Society.

Trinity School Estates Sub-Committee

Andrew Crispin

Andrew was educated at Trinity in the early 1980's, before training as a Quantity Surveyor and embarking on a career in the construction industry. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Building and a Freeman of the Worshipful Company of Constructors. Andrew is the Surveying Director of Walter Lilly & Company Limited, a well renowned and long established Croydon based construction company and his son is a Trinity alumnus.

Andrew is Chair of the TSC Estates sub-committee.

Melissa Jones

Melissa currently works for the Girls Day School Trust as a chartered building surveyor looking after 6 of the 24 GDST schools. She has a son at Trinity.

Alasdair Rudge

Alasdair is an ex-parent with a background in real estate who is currently a Director with CB Richard Ellis.

Peter Sutcliffe

Peter has been involved in the construction industry, and in particular the building services field, as a consulting engineer for over 25 years. A professional chartered building services engineer and also a mechanical engineer, Peter has worked in all construction sectors, including Health and Education, and is the MEP or Building Services Engineering Director for URS Corporation London.

Trinity School External Relations Sub-Committee

Keith Bedell-Pearce CBE

Keith was educated at Trinity, Exeter and Warwick and is a solicitor. He retired in 2001 after a 30 year career in the City and was appointed chairman of a number of private and public sector organisations. He is now the non-executive chairman of a technology company, the Honorary Treasurer and an Honorary Professor of the University of Warwick and a member of the investment committee of the Royal Society.

Richard Glennie

Richard is currently working as EMEA Communications Director for Nike, based in the Netherlands, where he is responsible for the development of creative and strategic Geo-wide strategies in support of the brand and business. This role involves working with some of the world's biggest athletes, teams and partners.

Prior to Nike, Richard held senior level roles including EMEA Communications Director at Reebok, running the Global collaboration with Emporio Armani as well as European Marketing Communications Director at Tommy Hilfiger.

Richard has also worked for WPP's flagship communications consultancy Hill & Knowlton, with clients including Adidas and the Rugby Football Union, and has published work with leading retail analysts WGSN.

Educated at Trinity School and Loughborough University, where he graduated in English and Art History, Richard has also studied at Central St Martin's and the British Institute of Florence.

Terence Perrin

Terence began his career as an HR Manager in the charity/voluntary sector before leading university recruitment for the National Audit Office. He has led recruitment functions at Watson Wyatt, investment bank Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein and KPMG. In 2004 he joined JP Morgan running campus & experienced hire resourcing / development for the Private Bank & Investment Management functions in EMEA (Europe, Middle East & Africa). Terence is now focussed on resourcing, development and mobility for early careers and experienced hires at French investment bank BNP Paribas. He is also involved with global talent management projects for the bank.

Terence is Chair of the TSC External Relations sub-committee.