The above companies in the UK are those that we understand currently match gifts donated by their employees— however, the list is not definitive. If your employer is not listed above, please contact your HR department to find out if they operate a scheme.

In most cases, the company will match your donations up to a specific level - some even double-match. Contact your HR department who should be able to give you a form confirming your gift. You then send that form to us so we can confirm receipt of the gift.

For further help and guidance, please contact the Development & Alumni Office at development@trinity.croydon.sch.uk or 020 8662 5162
